

The day before an examination is tensed in many ways. On this day, the examinees are in a different mood. The candidates put their heart and soul into studies. The parents of the examinees take extra care of them during examination days. Everyone wishes them success. Examinees are encouraged and helped by their relatives and friends. No one in this world likes to be examined. Time management is one of the most crucial skills that any student must possess. Moreover,⁸⁰ there are certain aspects of time management that one needs to consider. Everyone has the same 24 hours, however, some make better use of their time than others. The more productive the work, the better are the results. Moreover, time management requires a careful balancing between professional life, social life, hobbies or activities. From an academic perspective, time management is a necessity. Students have many subjects to cover. Criminal is not defined by what they look like who they are¹⁶⁰ or what they do for a living. But it is defined by the psychology of their minds. Criminals have a different mindset than the average person and they have the chemical imbalance in the brain. However, scientists have discovered that brains of many criminals are not normal. Scientific studies show that a large majority of convicted criminals have some sort of psychological issue or problem in their brains. There are many groups that make up our society and are considered²⁴⁰ social institutions. Feeling aggrieved and dissatisfied with the impugned judgment and order dated 19.02.20, the said application is preferred by the appellant to permit him to be joined as Respondent No. 4 in the said Special Criminal Application No. 8704 of 2018. So, the special criminal application was filed by the private respondent. The fact of petition was that in an earthquake, a number of buildings were collapsed and 98 persons died. This Court also observed that the private respondent³²⁰ or victim can also carry our proceedings in an appropriate Court against Respondent No. 1 for not prosecuting him. Ethics are basic standards or ideals that regulate the actions of a person or a community. Ethics is essential in business as well as in academic institutions and social structures. In every community, most citizens follow the values that are ethical. The family has a powerful impact on one's beliefs and actions. In fact, parents create guidelines from the beginning and⁴⁰⁰ they are the foundation of our ethics and morals. Society should boost the morale of players as well as the students. Do not ever demotivate them. Social principles and social standards have declines over time. As a consequence, the number of crimes such as killings, robberies, gang, assaults, kidnappings, abduction, extortion, grab and run cases, chain snatching, murder, human trafficking, etc. have increased in past few years. If we want to see a world with a relatively low rate of⁴⁸⁰ violent crime and where all human beings can reside peacefully, we need to look at the values and ethics of the society.⁵⁰²
