

Integrity is the practice of being honest and showing a sense of consistency to ethical principles and values. Integrity is regarded as the honesty and truthfulness or accuracy of one's actions. Agriculture is the heart of our economy and culture. Government is planning to increase its investment in agriculture, rural development, irrigation, horticulture, forestation, rural infrastructure, etc. Agriculture has potential for employment generation in the country. Government has a great focus over National Housing Policy. The suggestions have been invited⁸⁰ from the public for General Budget. The Government will initiate immediate steps to effect reforms in Public Sector Undertakings. Breakfast is a necessary component of our life. We should not miss it. Gym is a centre to build your body as well as to shape your body into a perfect size. Milk, biscuit, tea, sugar, juice, fruits and coffee are items of our routine life. Dying declaration means that a man will not meet his maker with a lie in¹⁶⁰ his mouth. Section 32 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 provides the concept of dying declaration. It is admissible in evidence. It is made on oath. Truth sits on the lips of a person who is about to die. The victim is exclusive eye witness. The primary effort of the Court is to find out whether the dying declaration is true. There is no particular form of dying declaration. India is known for its spices. It exports spices to many²⁴⁰ foreign countries. During last few years, the N.P.A. of banks has been increased. People take loan when they have the need, but they refuse to give the money back to the bank. It is totally wrong. In the hour of need, even a queen can come to your house, but when the need is satisfied, then even the servant of queen will not come to your house. There is an increase in selfishness in the human beings. It can be³²⁰ high or low temperature. You are under obligation to follow the traffic rules. Company has given the task to assist the Managing Director so that he can become familiar to the weather conditions of the city. He is from South India. Kashmir is glorified with many beautiful types of scenery. During summer season, the timing of Courts is changes to morning. A man should always see the sunrise. Sun has the natural energy in it. It is only illuminates the⁴⁰⁰ outer world, but it purifies our heart and mind. You should have devoted in each and every task you perform in life. Chocolates contain a considerable amount of sugar. Recently, Supreme Court of India affirmed the conviction of a raped accused. The rape victim identified the accused during the Test Identification Parade, but later on, she refused in Court. High Court convicted the accused and held that he had won over the rape victim due to passage of time.⁴⁸⁰